Sir

While at Charles Whitmore's House one day he said if I ever needed anything in the coin line I might get it from you. I thought I would write and ask how much you wanted for a 1843 Cent in very fine or uncirculated condition also an 1809 Cent in very good or fine, and have orders for the two if I get them for a certain price and Mr. Mathewson has not got them or any body here but one man and I can not touch his price to advantage. I hope to hear from you although I do not know your exact address.

Yours

J. E. Stewart
